MAYOR'S MESSAGE...

It is hard to believe that the Winter Season is here already. With the cold weather comes the possibility of winter weather. In the event a Snow Emergency is declared for the Borough all vehicles will need to be moved off all Borough streets. This allows the streets to be plowed in a quick and safe manner. You will be able to find out the weather information on the local TV and radio stations. The information will also be available on the Borough and the Union Fire and Hose Company websites.

From my family to yours I would like to wish all the Borough Resident's a very Merry Christmas, and a Happy New Year. Most of all I hope everybody has a safe Holiday Season.

If anybody has any questions or comments please feel free to contact me at mayor-popedover@gmail.com.

Mayor Richard A. Pope

SNOWPLOWING

Winter will soon be here and I would like to remind you about snow removal requirements.

It is our policy to PLOW SNOW CURB TO CURB to the best of our ability! Whenever snow is forecast, we encourage residents to move your vehicles off the streets to allow us to completely clear the streets for your safety. Also, it is best to wait until the snowplow clears your area before shoveling to avoid having your driveway plowed shut again.

Dover Borough Zoning Ordinance, Section 135-1 “requires the owner, occupant or tenant to remove snow and ice from the sidewalks and walkways in front of and alongside of their property to a width of not less than 2 feet within 8 hours after the snowfall ceases”. Snow is not to be placed in the streets, alleys, crosswalks or around fire hydrants. In addition, please spread an ice melt product on the sidewalks to keep them safe for pedestrians and our mail carriers.

SNOW EMERGENCIES - We will be declaring snow emergencies during the winter months whenever 4 inches (or more) of snow is predicted. This requires you to park all vehicles off the street. Snow emergencies will be announced on local TV and radio stations. (TV - WGAL, Fox 43, WHP TV 21; Radio - WGTY 107.7 FM, WGET 1320 AM)

Please contact me at the Borough office if you have any questions about ordinances.

Thank you for your cooperation!
Bradley Lentz, Zoning/Code Enforcement Officer

PROTECT YOUR FAMILY FROM CARBON MONOXIDE POISONING

Safety Tips

- Have your home heating systems (including chimneys and vents) inspected and serviced annually by a trained service technician.
- Never use portable generators inside homes or garages, even if doors and windows are open. Use generators outside only, far away from the home.
- Never bring a charcoal grill into the house for heating or cooking. Do not barbeque in the garage.
- Never use a gas range or oven for heating.
- Open the fireplace damper before lighting a fire and keep it open until the ashes are cool. An open damper may help prevent build-up of poisonous gases inside the home.
- Install battery-operated CO alarms or CO alarms with battery backup in your home outside separate sleeping areas.
- Know the symptoms of carbon monoxide poisoning: headache, dizziness, weakness, nausea, vomiting, sleepiness, and confusion. If you suspect CO poisoning, get outside to fresh air immediately, and then call 911.

Know the Symptoms of CO Poisoning

Because CO is odorless, colorless, and otherwise undetectable to the human senses, people may not know that they are being exposed. The initial symptoms of low to moderate CO poisoning are similar to the flu (but without the fever). They include:

- Headache
- Fatigue
- Shortness of breath
- Nausea
- Dizziness

High level CO poisoning results in progressively more severe symptoms, including:

- Mental confusion
- Vomiting
- Loss of muscular coordination
- Loss of consciousness
- Ultimately death

Symptom severity is related to both the CO level and the duration of exposure. For slowly developing residential CO problems, occupants and/or physicians can mistake mild to moderate CO poisoning symptoms for the flu, which sometimes results in tragic deaths. For rapidly developing, high level CO exposures (e.g., associated with use of generators in residential spaces), victims can rapidly become mentally confused, and can lose muscle control without having first experienced milder symptoms; they will likely die if not rescued.

EMA CORNER

Emergency Preparedness

In a disaster, local officials and relief workers cannot reach everyone immediately. Help may not arrive for hours or days. You and your family -- and don't forget to include the needs of those with disabilities -- need to be prepared ahead of time because you won't have time to shop or search for the supplies you will need when a disaster strikes.

Most disasters are natural disasters, the result of some force of nature, such as tornadoes, hurricanes, and floods. Some natural disasters can be predicted, such as hurricanes and severe winter storms, while others, such as tornadoes and earthquakes, happen with little or no warning.

Some disasters are the cause of human actions, intentional or unintentional. A disaster plan will help with safety, security, and comfort.

Regardless of the type of disaster, there are things you can do to prepare. Contact your local Red Cross chapter, visit the FEMA Web site, or Ready.gov to make sure you are aware of the potential for natural disasters in your community. After you have identified the types of disasters that could strike where you live, create a family disaster plan that can apply to any type of disaster - natural, unintentional, or intentional.

Prepare an emergency supplies kit

Disaster can occur suddenly and without warning. They can be frightening for adults, but they are traumatic for children if they don't know what to do when these events occur. Children depend on daily routines.

When an emergency disturbs their routine, children can become nervous. In an emergency, they'll look to parents or other adults to help.

How parents react to an emergency gives children an indication on how to act. They see their parents' fear as proof that the danger is real. A parent's response during this time may have a long-term impact. Including children in the family's recovery plans will help them feel that their life will return to normal.

Families should prepare an emergency supplies kit and develop a plan. Practice your plan so that everyone will remember what to do in an emergency. Everyone in the home, including children, should play a part in the family's response and recovery efforts. Remember: make the plan simple so everyone can remember the details.
